"Happiness is the soul's triumph over the senses; it is the victory of the spirit over the flesh."

"The only way to make a woman feel like a woman is to make her feel like a woman."

"If you're in the world, it's enough just to exist in the same way as others. What matters is to be a woman and to be a woman, that's the only thing that matters."

"Beauty is the soul's reflection, and the soul is the mirror of the heart. What we see in the world is a reflection of our own inner world. It is a mirror of the soul."
