The CHANGE
Over

A woman with long dark hair is standing in a courtyard with classical architecture. She is wearing a bright yellow, long-sleeved kurti with intricate gold embroidery on the chest and cuffs. Underneath, she wears maroon leggings and black high-heeled sandals. The background features large white columns and green window shutters.

For Everywhere

"Anyone can get dressed up and glamorous, but it is how people dress in their days off that are the most intriguing."

New dimes

"Don't be into trends. Don't make fashion own you, but you decide what you are, what you want to express the way you dress and the way to live."
