

A woman with long dark hair is sitting on the ground, leaning against the trunk of a large tree. She is wearing a light blue long-sleeved dress with a large, abstract pattern in shades of blue and grey. She is also wearing a matching patterned shawl or wrap over her shoulders. She is looking towards the camera with a slight smile. The background is a natural setting with dry grass and trees, suggesting a forest or park. The lighting is warm, indicating it might be late afternoon or early morning.
