*They whisper her name, and discuss her lineage. In her path they scarce regard; in her silence a royal brilliance and in her attire regality.
They bow their heads before her, and give her way when she passes. She smiles and bids her surroundings with grace.*

Some dresses are tailored with the most great materials.
Recently a designer designed the kurta which made his dress to city special.
He had called it with great resonance of water, blue and pleasure. And who else would love them but those heavenly beauties.
Whoever there is embellished and held with these dresses.

*They surround her as she leads the forest. She gazes expectantly, and beams at them. They bow in subservience,
in eternal gratitude to the glory of eternal beauty.
The vines and leaves cheerfully sway as she passes, whispering her perfect name and singing praises about her majestic crown.*

*They surround her as she leads the forest. She gazes expectantly,
and beams at them. They bow in subservience,
in eternal gratitude to the glory of eternal beauty.
The vines and leaves sheath spray as she passes, whispering her perfect name and singing praises about her majestic cause.*

*As they gaze into the mirror, they're struck by bewilderment.
Not knowing it is their reflection they behold they imagine it to be a world of wonder and calm imprisoned in the confines of those glassy depths.
They marvel at the beauty within, clad in threads of utmost magic.*

*Against the golden decarage of Rajasthan, she blends in like she was always meant to.
For there is the colour of sand, an alloy of culture and untold history. Every step she takes is a story, whispered from bygone to bygone, about a lady called.*
